

Rajiv Gandhi University of Knowledge Technologies (RGUKT) Basar

Overview of the University

Rajiv Gandhi University of Knowledge Technologies (RGUKT) Basar is a unique institution in India that uses Information and Communication Technology (ICT) intensively in its educational model. The university is located in the serene and salubrious surroundings of Basar in Nirmal District, Telangana. The campus, spread across 272 acres, is situated near the holy land of Basar, which is home to the Goddess of knowledge, Gnyana Saraswathi. The river Godavari flows nearby, adding to the peaceful environment.

RGUKT was established by the Government of the erstwhile Andhra Pradesh through a special legislative act, making it one of the first institutions in the country to focus on an ICT-based education model.
